

77th REPUBLIC DAY CEREMONIAL PARADE REPORT

Venue: Narmada College of Science & Commerce, Zadeshwar, Bharuch

Event Overview

On the occasion of the 77th Republic Day, the NCC Cadets of Narmada College of Science & Commerce participated in the Republic Day Ceremonial Parade, demonstrating their discipline, patriotism, and commitment to the values of the nation.

Chief Guest

The event was graced by Dr. Sushmita Ganguly, Director Education – NEST as the Chief Guest. The celebration commenced with the hoisting of the National Flag, followed by the singing of the National Anthem, instilling a sense of unity and pride among the attendees. The NCC Cadets showcased an impeccable march-past and parade drill, reflecting their dedication and rigorous training.

The Ceremonial Parade

The highlight of the event was the ceremonial parade conducted by the NCC cadets. The cadets showcased their discipline, training, and commitment to national service through a well-coordinated and impressive march. The parade was led by the PO Cadet. Kaushal Pandey of the NCC unit followed by the platoons representing various year's cadets.

As the National Flag unfurled by our Chief Guest Dr. Sushmita Ganguly, Director Education – NEST the cadets saluted with precision, demonstrating their respect and dedication to the nation.

The march past was executed flawlessly with each platoon maintaining perfect alignment and rhythm. The cadets' uniforms were immaculate, and their synchronized movements reflected the rigorous training they had undergone. The parade was a visual spectacle that resonated with the spirit of patriotism.

Chief Guest's Address

Addressing the students, Dr. Sushmita Ganguly emphasized the significance of Republic Day, recalling the adoption of the Indian Constitution and its role in shaping the democratic framework of the nation. She motivated students to contribute towards nation-building by upholding the values of hard work, discipline, and dedication in their respective fields.
