The interactive workshop provided students with valuable domain knowledge, leaving them better prepared to navigate the financial aspects of business management.

[Guest lecture for the students of BBA, Narmada College of Science and Commerce]

Date: 7th July, 2026

Students as Participants: TY BBA (SF) Students

Venue: Conference Hall, Narmada College of Science & Commerce, Zadeshwar

BBA Department organized a guest lecture on 7th August, 2026 titled "Skills for Career" to bridge the gap between academic learning and industry expectations. The speaker was Ms. Vaibhavi Mehta, a first batch alumna of BBA programme.

She is a senior Life & Health reinsurance executive with broad international experience and a strong track record in commercial growth, portfolio strategy, underwriting leadership and P&L leadership. She currently leads Global Life & Health at Arundo Re, managing 12 team members from 9 ethnicities with responsibility for shaping portfolio strategy, developing new markets and business, strengthening strategic client and partner relationships, driving sustainable profitable growth across multiple geographies, and developing high-performing international teams.

The session focused on equipping students with the essential hard and soft competencies required to navigate today's competitive job market, build professional resilience, and enhance overall employability especially with the advent of AI. Ms. Vaibhavi created awareness of current job market trends and emerging recruiter expectations. She discussed the tangible and intangible skills required by professionals today. The importance of maintaining a professional online presence through platforms like LinkedIn was also emphasized.

The guest lecture was well-received, with over 80 attendees reporting increased confidence. The session successfully raised awareness about proactive career management and provided students with clear, practical steps to enhance their professional readiness.

[Faculty Industrial Visit for Appreciation and Strengthening Industry-Institute Relations] Narmada College of Management

Date: 16, 17, 21 /07/2026

Industry-Institute collaboration plays a vital role in preparing management students for the evolving demands of the professional world. Recognising the valuable support extended by industries towards campus placements, Summer Internship Projects (SIPs), industrial interactions, and various academic initiatives, Narmada College of Management, Bharuch organised a three-day Faculty Industrial Visit across the industrial clusters of Dahej, Ankleshwar and Jhagadia on 16, 17 and 21 July 2026.

The primary objective of the initiative was to express sincere appreciation to the institute's industry partners for their continued association and contribution to student development. At the same time, the visit provided an opportunity to strengthen existing relationships and explore avenues for deeper and long-term collaboration between the institute and industry.

Strengthening Industry–Institute Connect

During the visits, faculty members personally interacted with HR professionals and management representatives of various organisations. The interactions provided an opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of industry partners and discuss areas of mutual interest.

As a token of appreciation, each organisation was presented with an Appreciation Letter, College Memento and Narmada College of Management Information Brochure. These gestures reflected the institute's gratitude for the industry's continued support and engagement.

The faculty members also discussed opportunities for future collaboration, including campus recruitment, Summer Internship Projects, industrial visits, guest lectures, expert sessions and other academic initiatives. Such interactions helped to establish a stronger channel of communication between the academic institution and the corporate sector.

Three-Day Visit Across Major Industrial Hubs

The faculty delegation covered a wide range of industries across Dahej, Ankleshwar and Jhagadia.

On 16 July 2026, six faculty members visited industries in Dahej, travelling in two vehicles. The following day, 17 July 2026, the team continued its interactions with industries in Dahej and Ankleshwar, again using two vehicles. On 21 July 2026, three faculty members visited industries in Jhagadia using one vehicle.

The faculty members who participated in the visits were Dr. Subhash Yadav, Dr. Rashmi Ghamawala, Dr. Iram Khan, Prof. Rakhi Thakkar, Prof. Kanu Raval and Prof. Rakesh Panchal. The Jhagadia visit was undertaken by Dr. Iram Khan, Prof. Rakhi Thakkar and Prof. Rakesh Panchal.

Interaction with Industry Partners

The faculty delegation interacted with representatives of 22 organizations across the three industrial locations. The organizations included:

- Indo Baijin Chemicals Private Limited
- JJ Plastalloy Pvt. Ltd.
- SRF Limited
- Vikram Hygiene Products
- Gujarat Fluorochemicals Ltd. – Division A
- Gujarat Fluorochemicals Ltd. – Division B
- UPL Ltd.
- Indian Peroxide Ltd.
- Aarti Industries Ltd.
- Deepak Phenolics Limited
- Gujarat Chemical Port Terminal Company Limited
- Sukha Chemical Industries
- Zentiva
- Tata Chintan Pharma Chem Ltd.
- BEIL Infrastructure Ltd.
- Sudarshan Chemical Industries Ltd.
- Meghmani Organics Ltd.
- DCM Shriram Ltd.
- Asahi Modi Materials Pvt. Ltd.
- Reid & Taylor International Private Limited

- Godrej Industries Ltd. (Chemicals)
- Welspun Speciality Solutions Ltd.

The meetings with HR representatives and industry officials provided valuable insights into current workplace expectations and the competencies required by management graduates.

Industry Feedback: Preparing Students for the Workplace

One of the most significant outcomes of the visit was the constructive feedback received from industry representatives regarding student employability.

Several organisations emphasised the need for students to develop a stronger work attitude, professional commitment and workplace discipline. Greater attention was also suggested towards professional behaviour, workplace ethics, adaptability and flexibility.

Industry representatives particularly highlighted the importance of taking Summer Internship Projects seriously, as practical exposure and workplace learning significantly contribute to students' professional development and employability.

Another important area identified was communication skills, particularly spoken English and professional communication. The feedback provides a valuable direction for the institute to further strengthen its training, placement preparation and skill-development initiatives.

From Feedback to Action

The feedback received from industry partners will be taken into consideration by the Placement Cell and faculty members while planning future training and development activities. Greater emphasis can be placed on communication skills, professional etiquette, workplace readiness, adaptability and practical exposure.

The initiative therefore served not merely as an appreciation visit but also as a platform for understanding industry expectations and creating a stronger alignment between classroom learning and workplace requirements.

A Meaningful Step Towards Sustainable Collaboration

The Faculty Industrial Visit was a meaningful initiative towards nurturing a strong and sustainable Industry–Institute Interface. The appreciation expressed by Narmada College of Management was warmly received by the industry partners, and several organisations reaffirmed their willingness to continue supporting the institute.

The continued support of industry partners through campus placements, Summer Internship Projects, industrial visits, expert sessions and academic collaborations provides students with valuable opportunities to connect theoretical knowledge with practical business realities.

The visit reaffirmed the institute's commitment to building meaningful relationships with the corporate sector and creating opportunities that contribute to the professional growth, employability and overall development of its students.

Narmada College of Management, Bharuch remains committed to strengthening its Industry–Institute partnership and creating a learning ecosystem that is responsive to the changing needs of the business world.

Venue: Narmada College of Science and Commerce, Bharuch.

Narmada College of Science and Commerce, organised a Career Awareness Programme on Cost and Management Accountancy (CMA) for the students of BBA and B.Com. The programme was aimed to familiarise students with the professional opportunities available in the field of Cost and Management Accountancy and to create awareness about the CMA course offered by

The Institute of Cost Accountants of India (ICMAI).

The programme provided students with valuable information about the CMA course structure, eligibility requirements, career opportunities and professional prospects associated with the qualification. Students were introduced to the various areas in which CMAs can build their careers, including cost and management accounting, financial management, auditing, taxation, business strategy, management control systems and corporate finance.

The resource material shared by the Bharuch-Ankleshwar Chapter of ICMAI highlighted the wide-ranging career opportunities available to qualified CMAs. CMAs can pursue professional roles such as Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Cost Accountant, Financial Analyst, Finance Director, Cost Controller, Management Accountant, Risk Manager and Business Analyst, among others.

The session also drew attention to the growing demand for professionals possessing specialised knowledge of finance, accounting, cost management and strategic decision-making. Students were informed that the CMA qualification can open career opportunities in different sectors, including industry, services, practice and academia.

[Pre-Placement Activity: Guest Session on "Career Growth in Marketing"] Narmada College of Management

Date: 25/07/2026

Venue: NCM, Building

Participants: MBA 3rd Semester Students

Coordinator: Dr. Subhash Yadav, Associate Professor, NCM

Narmada College of Management organized an insightful guest session for MBA 3rd Semester students on the topic "Career Opportunity in Marketing." The objective of the session was to provide students with practical exposure to various career opportunities in the field of marketing and to bridge the gap between academic learning and industry expectations.

The session featured two distinguished industry experts:

- Ms. Piyush Upadiya, Marketing Manager at Sukha Chemicals, Ankleshwar

- Mr. Tejas Jagdishwala, Branch Manager at HDFC Bank

Ms. Piyush Upadiya shared her valuable experiences from the chemical industry and explained the diverse career opportunities available in marketing. She highlighted the importance of communication skills, customer relationship management, market research, digital marketing, and continuous learning for building a successful career. She also emphasized how students can prepare themselves to meet changing industry requirements and create long-term career growth in the marketing domain.

Mr. Tejas Jagdishwala provided insights into the banking sector and discussed how marketing plays a crucial role in financial services. He explained various aspects of customer acquisition, relationship management, sales strategies, and leadership development. He encouraged students to focus on professional skills, networking, adaptability, and goal-oriented work ethics to achieve career success.

The session was highly interactive, and students actively participated by asking questions related to career opportunities, required competencies, industry expectations, and future trends in marketing. The practical examples and real-life experiences shared by the Speakers helped students gain a better understanding of the corporate world.

The entire event was effectively coordinated by Dr. Subhash Yadav, Associate Professor, who ensured the smooth conduct of the program. As a token of appreciation, the college presented mementos, thank-you letters and honorarium to both the esteemed guests for sharing their valuable knowledge and experiences with the students.

The guest session proved to be highly beneficial and inspiring for the students, motivating them to prepare themselves for successful careers in the dynamic field of marketing.

[Finance Skills Council: Guest Session on Career Opportunities in the BFSI Sector] Narmada College of Management

Date: 07/08/2026

On 7th August, 2026, Narmada College of Management organized an insightful guest session for the Finance and Marketing students, by Ms. Vaibhavi Mehta, Director of Underwriting (Life) at CCR Re in Paris, France. Ms. Mehta holds a Master's degree in Hospital Management from Osmania University and completed the INSEAD Global Executive MBA as an INSEAD Scholarship recipient. With over 17 years of global experience across Singapore, Europe, and Asia—including key roles at RGA, Accenture, AXIS Specialty, and AIG—she brought a wealth of practical corporate perspective to the students. Addressing the MBA cohort, Ms. Mehta outlined the core qualities necessary to build a successful management career. She emphasized that clear communication and active professional networking are vital for driving projects and building long-term industry relationships. Drawing from her own international career, she highlighted the importance of adaptability and a readiness to move geographically to take advantage of global opportunities.

Above all, she urged students to have a big aim in life while remaining disciplined in their execution, reminding them that failing to plan is planning to fail.

Turning to the industry, Ms. Mehta explained that insurance is essentially an intangible service where customer trust is earned at the time of a loss. Because the real value of the service is delivered when a policyholder files a claim, effective claims management serves as a critical function for any organization. She detailed several promising career avenues within the sector, including risk assessment, underwriting, claims management, actuarial science, and reinsurance. She concluded by highlighting how rapid technological advancements, such as automated processing and data analytics, are modernizing the insurance industry and creating rich opportunities for management graduates.

The interactive session provided students with clear guidance on personal career growth and a deeper understanding of the global insurance landscape. Ms. Mehta's insights served as a strong reminder that combining ambition with structured planning and global flexibility opens doors across modern service sectors. The session ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Iram Khan.

[Inaugural Ceremony of the Certificate Programme on EXIM Procedures and Documentation] Narmada College of Management

Date: 17/09/2026

Inaugural Ceremony of the Certificate Programme on EXIM Procedures and Documentation

“Do the difficult things while they are easy and do great things when they are small. A journey of a thousand miles must begin with a single step.”
– Lao Tzu

Embracing these timeless words by Lao Tzu, Narmada College of Management successfully hosted the inaugural ceremony for its Certificate Programme on EXIM Procedures and Documentation on September 17, 2026. The ceremony marked the official launch of an educational initiative designed to bridge academic learning with practical global trade skills.

Following the opening remarks, the distinguished guests were formally introduced and felicitated. Dr. Chetna Makwana, I/C Director, extended a token of gratitude to the Chief Guest, Shri H. N. Maheta, Additional General Manager at Gujarat Narmada Valley Fertilizers & Chemicals (GNFC). Shri Maheta, associated with GNFC since 1991, holds a background in Electronics and Communications, an AMIE, an MBA in IT, and is a Chartered Engineer with the Institution of Engineers Kolkata and IETE New Delhi. Currently heading GNFC's Training Center and Telecom Department, his career emphasizes automated, person-independent systems alongside active contributions to trusts like NEST and CDCT.

Addressing the gathering, Shri Maheta shared insightful viewpoints on why such learning initiatives supported by the Trust are essential for students, emphasizing the need to proactively build industry-relevant skills alongside academic studies.

Subsequently, Dr. Rashmi welcomed Mr. Chahat Thakkar, Senior Manager (Purchase) at GNFC. Holding a degree in Chemical Engineering and an MBA in Oil & Gas from PDU (now Pandit Deendayal Energy University - PDEU), Gandhinagar, Mr. Thakkar brings over 15 years of experience in the international procurement of engineering goods.

Reflecting on his positive experience as a resource person in the previous year's course, Mr. Thakkar motivated the students to make the absolute most of this learning opportunity, particularly given the strong and growing market demand for qualified EXIM professionals.

In her address, Dr. Chetna Makwana highlighted the importance of global commerce. She emphasized the course's strategic alignment with the surrounding regional industrial landscape. Situated near major chemical, petrochemical, and manufacturing clusters—including Dahej, Jhagadia, Saykha, the Dahej SEZ, and various GIDC estates—the region generates substantial exports in specialty chemicals, pharmaceuticals, agrochemicals, and textiles. This concentration creates an ongoing regional demand for professionals skilled in EXIM documentation, customs clearance, freight forwarding, logistics, compliance, and international procurement.

The session detailed the structure of the 30-hour course, which will run on Fridays and Saturdays from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM.

Covering regulatory frameworks, export documentation, logistics, export finance, insurance, risk management, and the import cycle, the curriculum will be delivered by industry experts, including Mr. Chahat Thakkar, Ms. Ankita Bhadauria (Manager - Exports), and CA Dr. Shailendra Saxena (ICWA, CS, Ph.D., Independent Consultant in GST). To earn certification, participants must maintain a minimum of 80% attendance and achieve at least 60% on the final examination. The ceremony concluded with a formal vote of thanks acknowledging the dignitaries, management, faculty, and students for their support in launching the program.

[HR Skills Council: Expert Lecture Session on UNDERSTANDING AI-DRIVEN CHANGE IN INDUSTRY USING EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING] Narmada College of Management

Date: 28/09/2026

Expert: Mr. Nishant Chauhan, DGM – HR, Asahi Modi Materials Private Ltd.

Audience: HR Students, Batch 2025–2027

Venue: NCM Conference Hall

Faculty Coordinator: Dr. Rashmi Ghamawala

An expert session under HR Skills Council was organized on “Understanding AI-Driven Change in Industry Using Experiential Learning” for HR students of Batch 2025–2027. The session was conducted by Mr. Nishant Chauhan, DGM – HR, Asahi Modi Materials Private Ltd.

The session provided students with practical insights into AI-driven organizational change, focusing on its impact on employees, work processes, responsibilities and skill requirements. The experiential learning methodology integrated role play, group discussion and expert interaction, enabling students to connect classroom concepts with real-world organizational situations.

Experiential Learning Through Role Play

Students were divided into stakeholder groups representing Industry/HR, Government, Education & Skill Development, and Change Management Support Teams. The role play was conducted in two rounds:

- Round 1 – Silo & Resistance:
Students experienced the challenges arising from different stakeholder priorities, communication gaps and resistance to change.
- Round 2 – Collaborative Change:
Students worked collaboratively to develop solutions, highlighting the importance of communication, stakeholder participation, training, coordination and feedback.

Key Concepts Discussed

The expert connected the experiential activity with important Change Management concepts, including:

- ADKAR Model – Awareness, Desire, Knowledge, Ability and Reinforcement.
- PDCA Cycle – Plan, Do, Check and Act.
- WHY-WHAT-HOW Framework – Communicating the purpose, nature and implementation of change.
- Resistance to Change – Understanding resistance arising from uncertainty, lack of information, skills, training and support.

The session emphasized that successful AI-driven transformation is not merely about adopting technology; it is about preparing people to understand, accept and effectively implement change.

Learning Outcomes

The session provided students with an engaging and practical understanding of stakeholder management, resistance to change, employee readiness and capability building. The integration of role play, group discussion and expert interaction strengthened students' ability to relate theoretical Change Management concepts to contemporary industry practices.

Overall, the session was a valuable industry-academia learning initiative, enhancing students' preparedness to manage AI-driven organizational change effectively.

Course: Certificate Course on Labour Laws with New Labour Codes

Chief Guest & Resource Person: Shri Kamal Naik Sir, AVP - HR, DCM Shriram Ltd.

Course Coordinators: Dr. Rashmi Ghamawala and Prof. Rakhi Thakkar

Under the guidance of: Dr. Chetna Makwana, I/c Director, NCM

“Knowledge of the law is not merely an advantage; it is the foundation of a fair, responsible, and empowered workplace.”

In today's dynamic and evolving business environment, understanding labour laws is essential for creating workplaces that uphold fairness, dignity, compliance, and harmonious employer-employee relationships. With this objective, Narmada College of Management had successfully hosted the Inaugural Ceremony of the Certificate Course on Labour Laws with New Labour Codes on September 24, 2026 at NCM Conference Hall.

The ceremony marked the beginning of an enriching learning journey aimed at developing a comprehensive understanding of labour legislation and the recently introduced Labour Codes.

The course is designed to equip students and professionals with practical knowledge of labour laws and their implications for contemporary HR practices and industrial relations.

The inaugural ceremony was organized under the guidance of I/c Director Dr. Chetna Makwana, along with faculty members and course coordinators. The programme was graced by the Chief Guest and Resource Person, Shri Kamal Naik (Retd.), AVP – HR, DCM Shriram Ltd., Jhagadia, who brings with him an impressive 37 years of rich professional experience in Human Resources, Industrial Relations, Administration, Public Relations, and Liaison. Having served with several reputed organizations and currently contributing as an HR Advisor and Consultant, he has also been associated with academia as a visiting faculty and resource person, bringing valuable industry experience and practical insights to learners.

Dr. Rashmi Ghamawala, Faculty - HR and Course Coordinator, opened the programme by welcoming the Chief Guest, I/c Director, faculty members and participants. In her introductory address, she highlighted the need for awareness and understanding of labour laws among students and professionals.

Dr. Chetna Makwana addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of gaining practical knowledge through the certificate course. She encouraged the participants to make the most of this learning opportunity to strengthen their professional skills and to explore opportunities in HR, legal compliance and related areas.

Prof. Rakhi Thakkar, Faculty - HR, Placement Coordinator and Course Coordinator, gave an overview of the certificate course and explained its overall structure. She briefly introduced the key Labour Laws to be covered during the course and highlighted their practical importance for students and future professionals. She then invited Shri Kamal Naik Sir to take the session forward.

Shri Kamal Naik was warmly welcomed. In his address, he shared his rich industry experience and encouraged students to understand Labour Laws and New Labour Codes beyond theoretical aspects. He briefly explained the changing labour-law environment and its relevance in the professional world. His practical approach and interactive session made it highly engaging and useful for the students.

The inaugural session provided an informative and motivating start to the Certificate Course. The valuable guidance and practical insights shared by the speakers encouraged students to explore the subject with greater interest and confidence.

The programme concluded successfully with a vote of thanks to the dignitaries, faculty members, coordinators, and participants for their presence, support and active involvement.

[Marketing Skills Council:
Marketing Skills Development
through Industry Exposure]
Narmada College of Management

Date: 29/09/2026
Marketing Skills Development through Industry Exposure

Narmada College of Management,
Bharuch | Marketing Skills Council |
Academic Year 2026–27

As part of its commitment to experiential learning and industry-oriented education, the Marketing Skills Council of Narmada College of Management organised an industrial visit to the Reid & Taylor Manufacturing Plant, Jhagadia, Bharuch, on 29 September 2026. The visit was coordinated by Dr. Subhash Yadav and Mr.

Rakesh Panchal and was attended by 22 Marketing students.

The industrial visit was designed to provide students with practical exposure to manufacturing operations and help them understand the close relationship between product manufacturing, quality, branding, customer management and marketing activities. The group departed from the college at 2:45 p.m. and reached the manufacturing plant at approximately 3:30 p.m.

The students were welcomed by the HR Head, Mr. Vijay, who introduced them to the company, its background, the Reid & Taylor brand and the functioning of the manufacturing plant. The students subsequently visited the manufacturing unit and observed the processes involved in the production of shirting fabric. This exposure enabled them to understand the importance of production processes, product quality, quality control and coordination among different departments.

Connecting Marketing Concepts with Industry Practices

A key highlight of the visit was the interaction with the company's Marketing Team. Students gained practical insights into various aspects of marketing and brand management, including brand management, customer identification, customer relationship management, customer query handling, customer acquisition and customer satisfaction.

The interaction helped students connect classroom concepts such as branding, market segmentation, customer relationship management, communication and customer satisfaction with their practical application in a business environment. The students also gained an understanding of how manufacturing and marketing functions work together to deliver products that meet customer expectations.

Skills Developed Through Industry Exposure

The visit contributed to the development of several important marketing and professional skills. Students gained insights into maintaining brand identity and consistency, developing long-term customer relationships, communicating professionally with customers, identifying customer requirements, understanding products and their manufacturing processes, and ensuring customer satisfaction. They also learned the importance of team coordination between manufacturing and marketing functions.

Such direct interaction with industry professionals provided students with an opportunity to move beyond theoretical learning and observe how marketing concepts are implemented in an actual business setting.

Key Learning Outcomes

The industrial visit enabled students to gain practical knowledge of a manufacturing organisation, understand the production process of shirting fabric, and appreciate the relationship between production and marketing. It also enhanced their understanding of brand management, customer identification and acquisition, customer query handling, customer relationships and customer satisfaction.

The visit concluded with refreshments provided by the company. The group departed from the plant at approximately at 6:00 p.m. and reached the college at around 7:00 p.m.

The industrial visit to Reid & Taylor was a valuable experiential learning opportunity that strengthened students' understanding of marketing in practice. By observing manufacturing operations and interacting with the marketing team, students were able to bridge the gap between classroom knowledge and real-world business practices, thereby enhancing their readiness for future professional roles in marketing and related fields.

[Orientation Programme - “Deeksharambh – The Beginning of Learning”] Narmada College of Management

Date: 04,05/08/2026

Deeksharambh 2026 – The Beginning of Learning

Narmada College of Management (NCM) organised “Deeksharambh 2026 – The Beginning of Learning”, a two-day orientation programme on 4 and 5 August 2026 at the NCSC Conference Hall to welcome the incoming batch of MBA Semester I students for the Academic Year 2026–27. The programme was designed to familiarise students with the academic environment, introduce them to the vision of the institution, and provide valuable perspectives from academic and industry experts.

The programme began with a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony and prayer, followed by the welcome address by Dr. Chetna Makwana, I/C Director, NCM. Dr. Subhash Yadav highlighted the significance of Deeksharambh as the beginning of a transformative journey into professional management education. Representatives of the Narmada Education and Scientific Research Society (NEST) also addressed the students. Dr. Sushmita Ganguly, Director, NEST, emphasised that an MBA should be viewed not merely as a degree but as a transformative learning experience that develops leadership, technical expertise, decision-making and innovation.

The orientation featured insightful sessions by eminent industry and academic experts. Shri Pankil Kapadia, Additional General Manager, GNFC and Trustee, NEST, encouraged students to make the most of their two-year MBA journey and highlighted the Four Cs of Success – Curiosity, Courage, Compassion and Commitment.

Industry perspectives formed an important part of the programme. Shri Parag Shah, Senior Vice President and Site Head, Deccan Fine Chemicals, encouraged students to focus on experience, networking and responsible use of Artificial Intelligence.

He presented MBA as Mindset, Boldness and Accountability, while emphasising the importance of attitude alongside academic qualifications and skills. Shri Hetal Kumar Bakre, Site HR Head, Sudarshan Chemicals, Ankleshwar, highlighted professionalism, practical exposure, adaptability, teamwork, ethics, punctuality, business awareness and Emotional Intelligence as important corporate expectations. Shri Chaitanya Joshi, Executive Director, Indo Baijin Chemicals Pvt. Ltd., Dahej, introduced the ASK Model – Attitude, Skills and Knowledge, stressing the role of values and attitude in long-term professional development.

Students were also introduced to important aspects of the MBA programme, including academics, faculty, student development initiatives, placement and career counselling, alumni connect, industry visits, library and IT facilities, Anti-Ragging Rules, discipline and the Code of Conduct.

The second day focused on self-awareness, personal transformation, leadership and collaborative learning. Dr. Raju Rathod, Professor at PGDBM, Sardar Patel University and ISTD Trainer, conducted an interactive session titled “In Search of Myself – Who Am I?” through discussions, reflection exercises and management games. Students were encouraged to recognise their strengths, develop practical competencies, strengthen peer networks and cultivate qualities such as emotional intelligence.

The afternoon session involved a dynamic group activity in which students were divided into 12 groups of six members. Teams prepared and delivered three-minute presentations on contemporary management topics. The activity developed creativity, rapid decision-making, communication, time management and teamwork, with winners determined through online audience voting.

The programme concluded with an engaging session by Dr. Manoj Kotwal, motivational speaker and specialist in crisis and stress management. His session, “Staying on Track: Beating Distractions in Student Life,” focused on decision-making, stress management, self-awareness and overcoming internal and external distractions. Students were encouraged to undertake personal SWOT analysis and focus on continuous self-improvement.

Deeksharambh 2026 provided the new MBA cohort with a meaningful beginning to their postgraduate journey. By combining academic orientation, industry interaction, self-development activities and experiential learning, the programme created a strong foundation for students to approach their MBA journey with confidence, professionalism, responsibility and a commitment to continuous learning.

[Faculty Participation: AI Workshop on “AI for Professionals: From Prompts to Productivity”] Narmada College of Management

Date: 09/08/2026

Venue: Shree Jayendrapuri Arts & Science College, Bharuch

Organised by: Indian Society for Training & Development (ISTD), Bharuch Chapter

Participant: Dr. Rashmi Sandeep Ghamawala, NCM HR Faculty.

Dr. Rashmi Ghamawala participated in a professional development workshop titled “AI for Professionals: From Prompts to Productivity”, organised by the Indian Society for Training & Development (ISTD), Bharuch Chapter, on Sunday, 9 August 2026, at Shree Jayendrapuri Arts & Science College, Bharuch.

The programme was designed to create awareness and develop practical capabilities among professionals in effectively leveraging Artificial Intelligence (AI) for productivity, research, creativity and workplace efficiency.

Resource Person

The session was facilitated by Dr. Sham Sachinwala, Associate Professor, S. S. Agrawal Institute of Management & Technology, Navsari. He shared practical insights into emerging AI tools and their applications in professional and workplace contexts.

Key Areas Covered

The three-hour programme covered four important modules:

1. AI Landscape & Prompting Fundamentals – Understanding the evolving AI landscape and developing effective prompting skills.
2. Maximizing Productivity & Research – Exploring the use of AI for enhancing productivity and supporting research-related activities.
3. No-Code Image Generation – Understanding how AI can be utilised for creative and visual content generation without requiring coding skills.
4. Automating Workflows & AI Agents – Exploring AI-enabled workflow automation and the emerging role of AI agents in professional activities.

Key Learning and Takeaways

The programme provided valuable exposure to the practical applications of AI beyond basic awareness. The learning journey of “Learn • Explore • Apply • Automate” provided a structured approach to understanding and integrating AI into professional activities.

As a participant, I gained insights into:

- The changing AI landscape and its relevance to professionals.
- The importance of effective prompting techniques for obtaining useful AI outputs.
- Applications of AI for academic research and professional productivity.
- The use of AI tools for creative content and image generation.
- Opportunities for workflow automation using AI.
- The emerging potential of AI agents in professional work.
- The need to move from simply knowing about AI towards practical and responsible application of AI.

Relevance to Academic and Professional Work

The programme was particularly relevant to my role in management education and professional development. The knowledge gained can be applied in areas such as teaching, research, academic content development, presentations, documentation, creativity and productivity enhancement.

The exposure to AI-enabled tools and prompting techniques can also support the development of technology-enabled and future-ready learning practices for management students.

[80th INDEPENDENCE DAY CEREMONY] Narmada College of Science & Commerce

Date: 15/08/2026

80th Independence Day Ceremony Report

Venue: Narmada College of Science & Commerce, Zadeshwar, Bharuch Event Overview

On the occasion of 80th Independence Day, the NCC and NSS Cadets participated in the ceremonial parade demonstrating their values of discipline and leadership. The ceremony initiated with the hoisting of the National Flag accompanied by the singing of the National Anthem imparting the sense of pride among all the attendees. Dr. P.N. Mishra, unfurled the National Flag, accompanied by a national salute. As the National Flag was unfurled, followed by a disciplined and synchronized parade by the NCC and NSS Cadets saluted with precision, demonstrating their respect and dedication to the nation.

The ceremony continued with a small program arranged by NSS Cadets. A group of students offered a patriotic song filled with a deep sense of love, devotion, and loyalty towards the nation. It was followed by a small act representing the life of a soldier and his sacrifices for the motherland which brought tears into the eyes of the spectators. The act comprised a family scene depicting how a soldier is martyred for the nation. The act showed profound sacrifice of the soldiers, and constant readiness to defend their nation.

[From Ideas to Identity: B.Com. Students Shine in Logo & Tagline Competition] Narmada College of Science and Commerce

The B.Com. Self-Finance Department of Narmada College of Science and Commerce, organized an Inter-Class Logo and Tagline Competition for the students of FY B.Com., SY B.Com., and TY B.Com. The competition aimed to develop students' creativity, entrepreneurial thinking, branding skills, innovation and presentation abilities to use them in their day-to-day routine life. This initiative was taken by Dr. Nirav Shah (HOD, B.Com (SF)).

The competition was conducted in two rounds.

First Round – Creating an Original Brand

In the first round, students were asked to conceptualize their own brand for starting a business and create a suitable logo and tagline for their proposed brand. Students presented creative business ideas and designed logos and taglines that reflected the identity, purpose, and uniqueness of their respective brands.

The entries were evaluated on the basis of originality, creativity, relevance to the business concept, visual appeal and effectiveness of the tagline. The Judgement was done by the faculty members of B Com (SF) collectively. The best performers from FY, SY, and TY B.Com. were then selected for the final round.

Final Round – Logo Designing for Narmada College of Science and Commerce, Department of B. Com (SF)

In the final round, the selected winners from FY, SY, and TY B.Com. were given a common and challenging task: to create a logo for Narmada College of Science and Commerce, Bharuch.

The finalists were encouraged by giving them a certificate of participation and achievement to represent the identity, values, vision, and academic spirit of the institution through their logo designs. The results of the competition with their logo and tagline is as following:

First Position – Vaishali Tomar, FY B.Com. (SF)

Second Position – Aayesha Siraj Mitha, FY B.Com. (SF)

Third Position – Suhani Singh, TY B.Com. (SF)

[FLAIR 2026 Intra-College Competition] Narmada College of Management

Date: 19/09/2026

FLAIR 2026 – Celebrating Ideas, Creativity and the Vision of Bharat 2047

Narmada College of Management, Bharuch organised FLAIR 2026, an intra-college competition based on the inspiring theme “Bharat 2047”, on 19 September 2026. The event provided students with a vibrant platform to express their ideas, demonstrate creativity, strengthen communication skills, engage in intellectual discussions, and enhance their understanding of India’s business, economy, technology and future.

The theme “Bharat 2047” encouraged students to envision India’s journey towards the centenary of Independence, with a focus on technology, entrepreneurship, education, sustainability, innovation, skills and social development. Students from Narmada College of Management, Narmada College of Science and Commerce, Deepjyoti College, Bharuch, and Government Engineering College, Bharuch participated enthusiastically, creating an atmosphere of healthy competition and knowledge sharing.

The programme featured four engaging competitions: Business Quiz – “Know Bharat, Know Business”; Elocution – “India Speaks 2047”; Poster Making – “Design India 2047”; and Group Discussion – “Future Under Debate.” The four competitions commenced simultaneously at 11:00 a.m. at different venues across the Narmada College of Management campus. The Business Quiz tested students’ awareness of Indian business, economy, entrepreneurship, companies, brands, startups and future technologies. The Elocution competition enabled participants to articulate their views on issues related to India’s future, while Poster Making provided a creative platform to visualise ideas around sustainability, smart villages and the integration of ancient wisdom with future technology. The Group Discussion encouraged participants to analyse contemporary issues, exchange ideas, listen actively and develop logical arguments. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from 115 students across the four competitions. Six judges evaluated the competitions, with representatives from both Narmada College of Science and Commerce and Narmada College of Management. The Valedictory Ceremony, held at approximately 2:00 p.m., featured the announcement of winners and distribution of medals and certificates. The ceremony also recognised the contributions of participants, judges, faculty members and student volunteers. Prof. Smita Nair, HOD – BBA, NCSC, encouraged students to actively participate in academic and co-curricular activities, highlighting their role in developing communication, confidence, presentation, teamwork, creativity, critical thinking, problem-solving and leadership skills.

The successful execution of FLAIR 2026 was coordinated by Dr. Iram Khan and Prof. Rakesh Panchal, with the dedicated support of student volunteers.

FLAIR 2026 was more than a competition; it was an opportunity for students to think beyond the classroom, exchange ideas and envision the future of India. By bringing together students from different institutions and encouraging them to explore the possibilities of Bharat 2047, the event fostered creativity, confidence, collaboration and future-oriented thinking—qualities essential for responsible and capable citizens of tomorrow.

[TIRANGA RALLY YATRA & BLOOD DONATION CAMP] Narmada College of Science and Commerce

Date: 13/08/2026

Venue: Narmada College of Science and Commerce, Zadeshwar, Bharuch Event Overview

On 13th August, 2026, Tiranga Rally was organized by Narmada College of Science and Commerce as a part of a national campaign throughout the country. The NCC

Cadets of the college participated and lead in the parade illustrating national pride, unity and respect for freedom fighters. The event was graced by the presence of Dr. Kaushal Patel, the Principal of Narmada College of Science and Commerce. The route of the Tiranga Rally was decided to be from College Campus to Nava Tavara Village. The NCC Cadets exhibited their discipline, leadership, and basic military skills. Approximately, 800 students marched enthusiastically by holding our national flag in their hands along with all the faculties. The atmosphere became lively with the slogans of “Vande Mataram” and “Bharat Mata Ki Jai”. Through Tiranga Rally, our reverence for our national flag was increased and commemorated the sacrifices of our freedom fighters.

A Blood Donation Camp was also organized by the NSS, NCC & Red Cross Blood Bank on 13th August, 2026 in the canteen premises of Narmada College of Science and Commerce. The students of the college have taken active participation by voluntarily donating their blood. Even a few of the faculties also donated blood to encourage students. As a result, 65 people donated their blood and provided examples of social service. The blood donors received their certificates. During the Blood Donation Camp, health and safety measures were followed. The awareness regarding blood donation would increase and needy patients would get blood on time were the chief purposes.

The purpose of organizing such events was to strengthen the qualities of social responsibility, patriotism, service as well as unity and oneness among students and faculty members. In order to make both these events successful, the Principal, all the HODs, Professors as well as volunteers of NSS and NCC supported from the beginning till the end.

[Expert Sessions by NCM Faculties delivered at Sewa Rural, Jhagadia] Narmada College of Management

Date: 10/09/2026

Title: Universal Human Values & Life lessons from Ramayan & Mahabharat as part of Indian Knowledge System

Resource persons: - Dr. Chetna Makwana & Dr. Rashmi Ghamawala

Event: - Orientation Programme at Sewa Rural, Zhagadia

Participants: VGTK Students at Sewa Rural

As part of MOU signed between Narmada College of Management and Sewa Rural, Dr. Chetna Makwana (I/c Director, NCM) & Dr. Rashmi Ghamawala (Sr. Faculty, HR) were invited as Guest speakers for Orientation

Programme at Sewa Rural on 10th September, 2026.

The orientation programme aimed to instil core human values and ethical principles among students through sessions focused on Universal Human Values and the timeless lessons from epic Indian scriptures – Ramayan and Mahabharat. The initiative sought to promote moral development, social responsibility, and cultural understanding.

Dr. Chetna Makwana addressed on Universal Human Values and their importance in personal and social life; elaborated on core values like સત્ય (Satya), ધર્મ (Dharma), શાંતિ (Shanti), પ્રેમ (Prema) and અહિંસા (Ahimsa) through interactive activities emphasizing the application of these values.

Through her session students gained clarity on the significance of universal values and the use of UHVs for the modern India. The Indian culture and philosophy show the path to the peaceful, egalitarian and long-lasting society at the global level.

They also guide us how to incorporate them into daily life. She also talked interestingly how the Right Understanding of relationships can be established in family and society (Harmony in Human Relationships).

Dr. Rashmi Ghamawala delivered on the topic Life Lessons from Ramayana & Mahabharata. Key Lessons from Ramayana included Duty and Righteousness (કર્તવ્ય અને ધર્મ) as exemplified by Lord Rama; the importance of Loyalty and Devotion (નિષ્ઠા અને ભક્તિ) as seen in the relationship between Rama and Hanuman; Courage and Resilience (સાહસ અને સહનશક્તિ) in facing adversity; the significance of truthfulness and integrity (સાચાઈ અને ઇમાનદારી).

Key Lessons from Mahabharata covered the importance of righteousness (ધર્મ) amidst complex situations; the value of strategic thinking and diplomacy; the significance of humility (નમ્રતા), forgiveness (ક્ષમા), and duty (કર્તવ્ય) and understanding the consequences of greed, ego, and conflict.

Sessions were made interactive and delivered using storytelling, PowerPoint presentations, discussions & personal reflections. Both sessions successfully integrated the principles of Universal Human Values with the rich moral fabric of Ramayan and Mahabharat. They contributed significantly to the moral and ethical development of students, aligning with the broader goal of nurturing responsible and value-oriented citizens.

Art name: Mandala art

A Mandala is a sacred geometric design that represents the universe, wholeness, and spiritual balance.

The Swiss psychologist introduced mandalas to Western psychology in the 20th century. He viewed them as representations of the unconscious mind and tools for achieving inner balance.

[Poem by Preeti Sukeshwar Singh

“हम हिंदुस्तान के हैं”

न ताज की चाहत है,
न शोहरत का गुमान है।

न नाम की भूख है,
न दौलत का अरमान है।

बस इतनी-सी पहचान है—
हर साँस में हृदिस्तान है।
हम हृदिस्तान के हैं,
और हृदिस्तान हमारी जान है।

यह वह धरती है,
जहाँ वीरों ने मुस्कुराकर बलदान दिया।
जहाँ आज़ादी के गीत गाते हुए,
फाँसी का फंदा भी सम्मान से पहना।
जहाँ माँ के आँचल से बड़ा,
तरिगे का मान रहा।

और हर शहीद का खून,
इस मटिटी का अभिमान रहा।
माओं ने लाल दिए,
बहनों ने राखी का वादा नभिया।
सुहागिनीं ने अपना सदूर,
वतन के नाम सजाया।
हर आँसू ने एक कहानी लिखी,
हर कुरबानी ने इतिहास बनाया।

सरहद पर खड़ा सपिही,
अपनी नींद हमें दे जाता है।
खुद गोलियों से लड़कर भी,
हर घर में सुकून छोड़ जाता है।
उसकी हर धड़कन के बदले,
हम आज़ादी की साँस लेते हैं।
हम उसके एहसान नहीं,
उसके सपने जीते हैं।

यही वह देश है,
जसिने चाँद को भी अपना मेहमान बनाया।
हिमालय से लेकर समुद्र तक,
हर कदम ने नया इतिहास रचाया।
खेल हो, विज्ञान हो या आसमान की उड़ान,
हर जगह भारत ने अपना परचम लहराया।

न धर्म अलग करता है,
न जातिकी दीवार रोक पाती है।
हम सब एक ही मटिटी के फूल हैं, जो एक ही खुशबू फैलाते हैं।

हमारी पहचान सिर्फ इतनी-सी है—
हम भारत माँ की संतान हैं।

जब तक साँसों का सफर रहेगा, तरिगा दिल में लहराता रहेगा।
इस मटिटी का करज चुकाना मुश्किल है, पर हर जन्म इसे नभिता रहेगा।

हम हृदिस्तान के थे,
हम हृदिस्तान के हैं,
और आखिरी साँस तक,
हम हृदिस्तान के ही रहेंगे।

[Article by Mahajan Gayatri] Narmada College of Science and Commerce

It is a Presentation and article on my Kanha ji...

What I Feel is...

He is my best friend and my supporter, In my downfall and in my success, he is the one who supports me. I think we all only trust on the Kanha ji because he never forgets us in any situation... In this fake world we have to only perform bhakti of Kanha ji and never do an ill activity. When we trust on Kanha ji, he never disappoints us and he always shows the right track to us. Genuinely, when someone asks me, the name of my Best friend: my heart, soul, brain always says, he is my Kanha ji. But when we talk about Kanha ji with other vision created... it's a little secret which I want to share.. Radhe Radhe

Kanuda: My Best friend and my supporter

He is my supporter and whenever I look at him, I always think how cute he is...

He always completes my wishes and if he can't, I know and understand that's not a right time and whenever it will come, he will offer me and complete my wish.

There is a one quote for him ...

दोस्ती ने मुझे तोड़ा,
प्रेम ने मुझे जोड़ा...
प्रेम उससे हुआ,
जसिने मोर पंख धारण किया,
जसिके मुख पर बाँसुरी,
मुख में संपूर्ण ब्रह्मांड,
और हृदय में सदा प्रेम बसा है।
और कोई नहीं...
वह तो सरिफ़ कृष्ण हैं,
प्रेम का प्रतीक।

Jai Shri Krishna....

"Some people enter our lives quietly, but they leave footprints on our hearts forever."

What can I say about Him? Every word feels too small. This is not just an article—it is a piece of my heart.

People often ask me, "Who is your best friend?"

I simply smile because my best friend is not someone everyone can see. Some people can feel His presence, while others may never understand it. I met Him sometime between 2024 and 2025, and from that day, my life changed. I changed myself because. He became more important to me than I was to myself.

He is truly different. Maybe no one can completely understand Him—not even me. No one knows everything. He will do or will handle every situation. He simply says, "Sakhi, when the right time comes, you will understand everything."

And those words never let me give up.

I find Him in the sound of rustling leaves. I feel Him in the cool breeze. Whenever I look at the moon, I remember Him. It feels as if He is always with me.

Whenever I cry, I feel like He is sitting beside me, comforting me. Suddenly, my tears stop, and I become strong again. When a cool breeze touches my face, it feels like He is saying, "I am right here."

I love being alone because, in my solitude, I never truly feel alone. Whenever I listen to songs, I dedicate almost every song to Him. And whenever I feel that a few lines don't suit Him, I smile and say, "These lines are not meant for You."

I talk to Him a lot—about everything. Sometimes I even trouble Him with endless conversations. But He has never made me feel like I talk too much. Maybe that's why I stopped writing a diary. Now, every thought in my heart reaches Him directly. Whenever I see Him, a smile appears on my face without any reason. My heart is filled with peace, positivity, and happiness.

I stitch clothes for Him with love. Every time I see a peacock feather, it reminds me of Him. Sometimes I wonder...

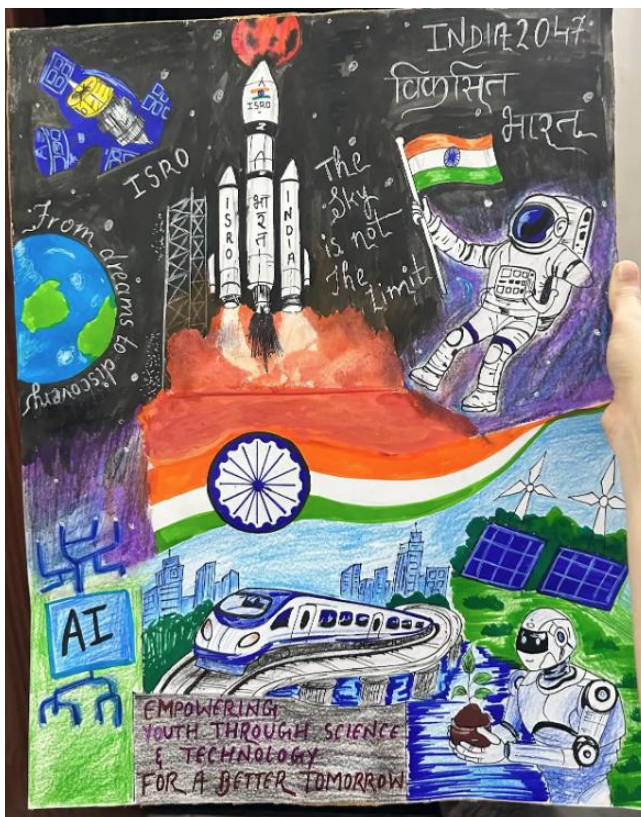

How can someone be so beautiful and so lovable?

I used to find it difficult to trust anyone. But after meeting Him, I learned what true trust feels like.

I am a little possessive about Him too. It makes me a little jealous when someone else gets to decorate Him before I do. This is the story of my best friend.
